Ref No - CCL/HQ/M&S/TCS/2024-25/ 1579

Date:21/08/2024

"NOTICE TO COAL CONSUMERS"

Sub: Refund of TCS Collected for the Financial year 2012-13 to 2017-18 in the year 2017-18

In continuation of the notice issued regarding the above-mentioned subject, vide no CCL/HQ/M&S/TCS/2024-25/1401 dated 31/07/2024 and subsequent extension vide no CCL/HQ/M&S/TCS/2024-25/1489 dated 14/08/2024, the date has been further extended for 7 days i.e. 27/08/2024 for submission of affidavit duly notarised in the enclosed format as per Annexure-B along with an application confirming the amount of TCS eligible for refund of subject TCS recovered in FY 2017-18. On receiving such affidavit, the CCL will revoke the TCS certificates already issued to such coal buyer.

Thereafter, the refund will be processed by the IT department and will be refunded to CCL and in turn CCL will refund to such coal buyers. Be it noted that as per SOP dated 01/02nd January 2024 of the income tax department, refund can be raised only once from one challan and no further refund can be processed from that challan. Hence, such refund can be processed only once in respect of all coal buyers who have a favourable High Court Order or who furnishes Affidavit to CCL as above.

Once the refund process is initiated after the due date for submission of application, no further claim will be entertained, and the remaining parties will be required to deal with income tax department directly for refund.

Hence, those listed consumers who has not submitted the application are requested to submit the application along with affidavit by 27th August 2024. Kindly note that this is the final extension, and no application will be entertained after 27th August 2024.
